

I Am Poem

Directions: Create your own “I Am” poem using the format below. First, write a draft on lined paper. Next, neatly print your poem in blue or black ink on blank white paper. Skip a line between stanzas. Then, decorate your poem with hand-drawn artwork that represents you! Include a clever and creative title. Color your paper edge-to-edge, and help me get to know you!

I am... (two special characteristics you have – adjectives)

I wonder... (something you are actually curious about)

I hear... (an imaginary sound)

I see... (an imaginary object)

I want... (an actual desire)

I am... (the first line of the poem repeated)

I pretend... (something you actually pretend to do)

I feel... (a feeling about something imaginary)

I touch... (an imaginary touch)

I worry... (something that really bothers you)

I cry... (something that makes you feel very sad)

I am... (the first line of the poem repeated)

I understand... (something you know is true)

I say... (something you believe in)

I dream... (something you actually dream about)

I try... (something you really make an effort about)

I hope... (something you actually hope for)

I am... (the first line of the poem repeated)
